DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Group I claims 1-17 and 20 in the reply filed on 9/19/2006 is acknowledged.

Claim Objections

Claim 18 is objected to because of the following informalities: the last line should recite "an associated conveyor pan". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are replete with a lack of antecedent basis. A few examples are: claim 1 line 3 "the goaf", line 4 "the wall side", lines 7-8 "the floor", line 8 "the level". Correction is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-17 and 20 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 16 of U.S. Patent No. 6,966,429 and over claims 1 and 26 of U.S. Patent number 6,896,121. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the above cited patents include subject matter directed towards a conveyor pan for face conveyors in underground mining systems with outward race and return race to guide a scraper chain, between which a conveyor bottom is disposed with on a goaf side and on a wall side securing means located at the conveyor pan ends for a connecting component to link adjacent conveyor pans together, with guide means for a mining machine which may be moved along the wall and with a static loading ramp connected to the conveyor pan on the wall side and extending from the floor to the level of the outward race, by means of which much may be loaded into the outward race as the face conveyor is advanced, the loading ramp comprising a curved or angled guide plate, a lower section of which is steeper relative to an associated floor or to the conveyor bottom than an upper section thereof.
